Exp No: 8
28/09/26

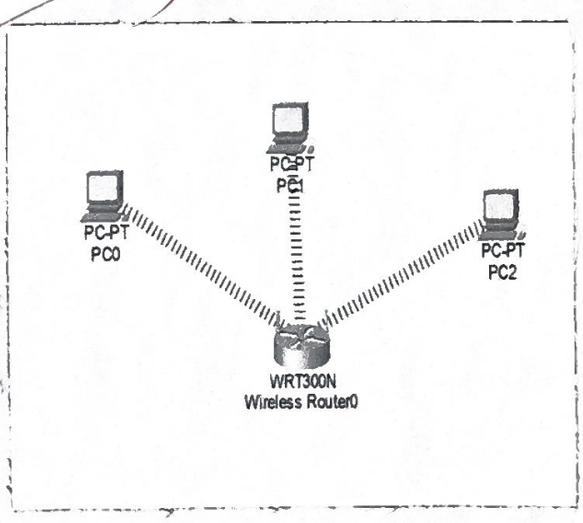

(b) CONFIGURATION OF WLAN USING CISCO PACKET TRACER

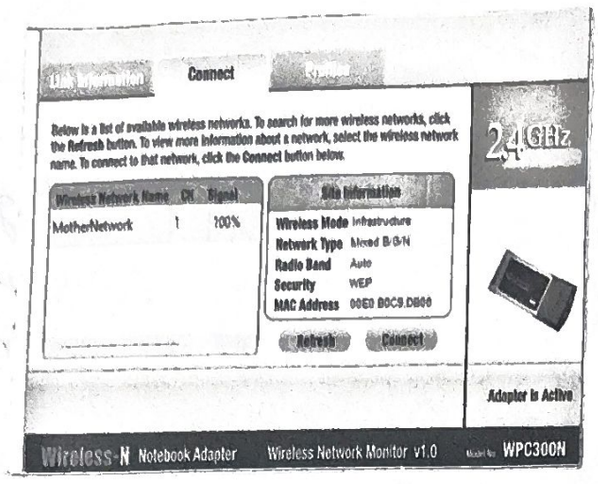

AIM:

To configure a wireless LAN using cisco packet tracer and establish wireless communication between computers through wireless router.

STEPS:

1. SSID is the name used to identify a wireless network.
2. security key is password used to protect wireless LAN from unauthorized access.
3. Wireless router device using wireless router (or) access point.
4. satic IP address is manually assigned to each device.
5. WEP is a wireless security protocol used to protect the network.
6. The WEP key used is 0123456789.

RESULT:

Thus, a secure Wireless LAN was sucessfully configured using cisco packet, and all three PCs were connected to wireless router.